Education Program Supervisors (EPSs)
Public Schools District In-Charge (PSDICs)
Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 780 s. 2019, declaring every fourth week of November the annual National Science and Technology Week (NSTW) spearheaded by DOST with the Department of Education and other scientific communities, this Division encourages all public elementary and secondary schools to conduct a school-based celebration of the National Science and Technology Week (NSTW) 2022 on November 23-27, 2022 with the observance of "no disruption of classes policy" and with proper health protocols.
2. The theme for this year's NSTW is: Agham at Teknolohiya: Kabalik at Maunlad at Matatag na Kinabukasan.
3. The NSTW aims to bring science, technology and innovation closer to the people and to give recognition and appreciation to outstanding scientists, researchers, inventors and institution.
4. The following are the suggested activities:
  - a. Sci-quiz/trivia on different scientists, inventors with inventions
  - b. Giving recognition to DOST scholars in the locality to honor their achievements as beneficiaries of the agency's scholarship program
  - c. Conduct of investigatory projects and scientific researches
  - d. Other activities planned by the school
5. School heads are required to submit e-copies of pictorial Accomplishment Reports on or before December 9, 2022 on the same link shared to the science teachers.
6. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum is hereby enjoined.
