Dear Dr. Abantas-USman:

Greetings of peace and goodness!

October of every year is declared as the Consumer Welfare Month (CWM) pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 1098 which is created under the Republic Act 7394, otherwise known as the "Consumer Act of the Philippines". This year's celebration carries the theme "GenS: Generation Sustainable."

As such, several activities are lined up to highlight the said celebration, one of which is the conduct of Provincial Consumer Quiz Bowl – High School Category. The top 3 winners for this event will compete in the Regional Level in Cagayan de Oro City on October 23, 2023. Attached is the contest guidelines for reference.

The said activity is one of the DTI's aggressive consumer education programs to raise the level of awareness and understanding of the youth on standards, prices, monitoring and enforcement activities, product quality and safety characteristics, trade and industry news and other consumer-related issues.

In this regard, we are requesting your division to have a maximum of 6 contestants only. For fair and best selection, we recommend that you will conduct a Quiz Bowl-Division Level.
