Invitation to Watch Juan Luna, Isang Sarsuela
of the Philippine Stagers Foundation

To : Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief Education Supervisors (CID and SGOD)
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District In-Charge (PSDICs)
Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. This memo serves as an invitation for all schools of Tangub City Division to watch the theatrical production, Juan Luna, Isang Sarsuela, by the Philippine Stagers Foundation. This musical play is scheduled at 12:00-2:00 p.m. on March 20, 2025 at the Tudela Gymnasium.
2. The production offers a unique opportunity for students to engage with Philippine history and culture in a dynamic and engaging way. It is highly recommended for students from grade 6 to 12 both public and private schools. DepEd teaching and non-teaching personnel are also invited to witness this enriching event whose travel will be on considered official time.
3. Participation to this activity provides a learning experience, enriched by the powerful performance, evocative dialogue, and stunning set design of the educational event. Learners will be provided with an opportunity to understand Juan Luna as a painter, a revolutionary activist, being known for his Spoliarium, as described in the Philippine history books. Further details regarding the play and logistical arrangements can be found in the attached Regional Memorandum No. 030, s. 2025.
4. All schools are advised to refer to this link for encoding of the number and names of participants both teachers and learners via google sheet link <https://tinyurl.com/juanlunaparticipants>.
5. To ensure compliance to DM 390, s. 2023 titled Maximizing Instructional Time and Utilizing Self Learning Modules (SLMs) for Alternative Delivery Mode (ADM), all schools are directed to adhere to the policy.
6. This Office directs the immediate dissemination of this Memorandum.

culture in a fun and educational way. Schools, especially those with the Special Program in the Arts (SPA), can include watching this musical as part of performance tasks and end-of-year activities. This artistic production allows students from elementary to senior high school to connect their lessons to real-life experiences. It also gives all students the chance to enjoy high-quality stage performances, helping them develop a greater appreciation for the arts.

5. This musical can also be used in learning areas such as Araling Panlipunan, MAPEH, and other subjects, as part of performance tasks, to enhance students' understanding of history, culture, and the arts through an engaging and interactive experience.

6. Private schools are also encouraged to participate, with the supervisor or focal person for private schools taking the lead in coordinating the involvement of students in this educational experience.

7. Attached are the posters and synopsis of the musical play for reference. Kindly review them for further information

8. Schools Division Superintendents (SDSs), in close coordination with the Philippine Stagers Foundation, are instructed to create a committee for this activity to ensure the seamless conduct of the musical. For more information, please contact:
